

K-Love is a great station and gives uplifting and encourgaging music and news to me and my community. There are so many radio stations out there, but not many that play Christian music. As a Christian, I have a right to listen to a station that is not offensive to my beliefs.